AFL-CIO Chiefs Eye Labor Bill

In Senate Proposal Changes To Be Asked

WASHINGTON (AP)—Leaders of the AFL-CIO met today to decide on changes they want made in the Senate-passed labor control bill.

Federation chiefs are expected to condition their original support for the Kennedy-Ervin bill on removal or modification of amendments made to the bill in the Senate committee and on the Senate floor.

The AFL-CIO has indicated that unless changes are made it may switch its support for the bill authored by Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Sam J. Ervin Jr., (D-NC) and actively oppose the bill in the House.

The bill, along with other proposed bills to curb labor corruption, is now before a House Labor subcommittee.

The federation's present position is understood to be that Senate amendments to the Kennedy-Ervin bill made it too tough for labor to swallow.

Originally, the bill required detailed reporting to the government on labor union fund handling, requirements for democratic procedures within unions, and powers vested in the secretary of labor to enforce the provisions.

Among amendments added in the Senate was a "bill of rights" authored by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark), spelling out rights of workers within unions and giving them power to sue to enforce such rights. AFL-CIO leaders say many of these new provisions would hamstring union leaders in administering unions.

Two unions with considerable influence in Congress, the Teamsters and United Mine Workers, both organizations outside the AFL-CIO, stepped up their opposition last week to any form of labor control legislation.

Bleachers Fall During Rodeo; 150 Are Hurt

MAYETTA, Kan. (AP)—A rodeo arena bleachers buckled "with a pop and a bang" Sunday in this eastern Kansas hamlet, injuring 150 persons.

Twenty-three of the victims required hospitalization. The others were released after treatment at hospitals in Topeka, Holton and Lawrence.

"There was a pop and a bang and it collapsed," said C. W. Lawson of Perry, Kan. "There was no warning that it was going to give way."

Lawson was one of about 500 persons in the recently installed bleachers when it crashed to the ground. He was not hurt.

Witnesses said the spectators had just started to file out after the last performance of the four-day rodeo when the accident occurred. Performers, and other fans in the crowd of about 6,000, plunged into the wreckage to free the victims.

"There was a lot of screaming and shouting," said one witness. "Some of the people clung to girders but most of them piled up into just a big heap. It took several minutes to get them unspined."

Cause of the accident hasn't been determined. The bleachers had been built for this year's rodeo. They were constructed of a metal frame and wooden seats. The section was 75 feet long and had 10 rows, the highest of which was about 16 feet from the ground.

London's Little Harlem Sees New Race Tension

LONDON (AP)—Special police guards patrolled Notting Hill, London's little Harlem, today to stave off a renewal of race rioting.

Tension rose in the slum area after the murder Saturday night of a Negro by a gang of white teenagers after they taunted him with "Jim Crow" jokes.

The murdered man was tall, bespectacled Kelso Cochrane, 32, a carpenter who was saving for a June wedding. He was walking home alone when the attack occurred.

David and Goliath Battle Rages in Mid East Tension

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—A David and Goliath battle of nerves rages in the Middle East today between Iran and world Communism. A dangerous period lies ahead, but Iran seems to have a better than even chance of keeping its giant Soviet neighbor at bay.

Backed by massive United States economic and military support, Iran is stronger now than at any time since the cold war began.

A tour of the Kurdish area in the northwest tends to ease fears that the Soviets might try to use it as a corridor to Communist-influenced Iraq. The Kurds in the area are bitterly anti-Communist. Inside the country the Communist Tudeh Party, although one of the strongest organized political forces, seems to have been crippled. Many of its members have fled the country. Others have been disillusioned with Moscow.

Neighboring Iraq's drift toward Communism is considered by many in Iran to be a greater problem than that of Moscow pressure itself.

With the Iraqi revolution last July, Moscow apparently decided the decisive moment had arrived to break the Baghdad Pact and the West's northern tier linking Turkey, Iraq, Iran and Pakistan in a defense chain.

The Soviets made important concessions to Iran. But when the prospect arose of Iran's signing a bilateral defense agreement with the United States, the Soviets rolled out their big propaganda guns for a heavy attack on Mohammed Reza Pahlavi.

Both honey and threats failed. Iran signed the treaty, and Moscow's predictions of dire consequences failed to materialize. Moscow suffered a loss of prestige.

But if neighboring Iraq comes under total domination by the Communists, in fact it is not in the hands of the Soviets.

Only Small Cut Expected in Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two influential Democratic senators predicted today Congress will make only moderate reductions in President Eisenhower's $3,930,000,000 Foreign Aid Program.

Sens. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) and John Sparkman (D-Ala) said in separate interviews they think the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, of which they are members, will approve an authorization of about 3½ billion dollars.

This amount looks like a target figure for action by the House Foreign Affairs Committee, which will begin its item-by-item scanning of the bill Wednesday. The Senate committee will not get to this phase until next week.

Sparkman said President Eisenhower, who has backed up his request vigorously, can expect some reductions in the over-all amount "but I don't believe they are going to be substantial."

Mansfield, the Assistant Democratic Leader, agreed that the Senate committee is likely to reach a figure of about 3½ billion.

While Eisenhower has rallied the Republican leadership behind his $3,930,000,000 request, not all of his party members will go along with him. There also has been a shift away from the Foreign Aid Program by some Democrats who supported it in the past.

West Offers To Separate German Issues

But Russia Is Told Berlin Topic Cannot Be Fully Isolated

GENEVA (AP)—The Western powers offered today to discuss the Berlin crisis with the Soviet Union apart from other German issues. But they declared the Berlin issue cannot be "settled in isolation" from German reunification and European security problems.

The Western offer was made in a statement issued in an apparent effort to calm a stormy dispute within the Western camp over whether to seek a stopgap arrangement on Berlin.

The row ranged the United States and Britain against France and West Germany.

The U.S. and British delegations let it be known over the weekend that they felt the Soviet Union's adamant rejection of the Western package proposal for German reunification and a European security system necessitated negotiations on the immediately pressing question of Berlin.

French and West German officials insisted on continued firm support for the package program and a very tough line in negotiating with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

The joint Western statement denied that the Allies had decided to break up the Western package plan.

It said the Western powers had already stated that "the various questions included in the plan can be discussed one by one. But as they are, in fact, all connected, they cannot be settled in isolation."

"As to Berlin," the statement said, "the Western foreign ministers expect to discuss this problem along the line of the proposals on Berlin contained in Phase I of the Western peace plan."

The plan proposes that West and East Berlin be united by free elections and the unified city be guaranteed by the Big Four. This would be the first step toward German reunification.

The statement was issued after Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and other Western foreign ministers met at Herter's headquarters to line up their strategy for the second week of the conference.

Their immediate problem in advance of the afternoon session at the Palace of Nations was to close ranks on the issue of Berlin negotiations.

The joint statement indicated that for the time being, at least, they had overcome their difficulties.

The statement said the Western (Continued on Page Two)

Twelve Persons Injured In 3 Auto Crashes Here

Twelve persons were injured, one seriously, in three auto accidents on area highways during the weekend.

Herman Brown, 44, Route 2, Orient, was listed in critical condition today in University Hospital, Columbus. He and five others were injured when the panel truck in which they were riding crashed off the Dawson-Yankee road about eight miles west of here at 5:50 p. m. yesterday.

Deputy Sheriff Robert Hoover said the truck was driven by Augustus H. Rayburn, 17, Route 2, Orient. He suffered a bruised forehead.

Other passengers injured were: Dona Brown, 24, shock; Bonita Brown, 16 months, scalp laceration; Sharon Puckett, 14, deep laceration of the scalp; and Harris L. Hite, 17, bruised elbow and shoulder and shock. All gave their addresses as Route 2, Orient.

DEPUTY Hoover said all were rushed to Berger Hospital. Brown was transferred to Columbus for treatment of severe chest and back injuries.

Miss Puckett was admitted to Berger Hospital and the others were treated and released.

Hoover said the truck, headed northeast, failed to make a curve and rolled over in a ditch. He said the demolished vehicle traveled 384 feet before coming to a halt.

Four persons were injured when two cars collided at 9:35 p. m. Saturday on County Road No. 511 near the Circleville Motel.

One of the autos was driven by Clarence L. Miller, 33, Youngstown, who suffered back injuries. The other car was operated by Charles W. Styers, 40, of 584 N. Pickaway St., who was treated for a laceration of the nose.

Miss Nelle Oesterle Wins Freedoms Foundation Medal

Miss Nelle Oesterle, Ashville history teacher, today was awarded the 1959 Valley Forge Classroom Teacher's Medal by the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge.

The medal was awarded to 444 "exceptional service in the cause of responsible citizenship, patriotism and a better understanding of the American way of life," Miss Oesterle said today, "It's quite a shock. A very nice one."

She is a Pickaway County native, born in Walnut Twp. At Ashville-Harrison High School she teaches American History, World History and Problems of Democracy.

Miss Oesterle, 59, is a graduate of Ashville High School. She attended Pickaway County Normal School at Ashville, Ohio State University and the University of Wisconsin. She has both Bachelor of Science in Education and Master of Arts degrees from Ohio State.

SHE BEGAN her teaching career in 1923 at Urbana High School. She taught from 1925-28 at Ironton, then spent a year in Washington, D. C. doing research work on George Washington's travels, and taught at Rio Grande College in 1931-32.

She left the teaching profession for a period, then returned as a teacher at Walnut Twp. in 1942. She has been at Ashville since 1953.

Miss Oesterle said, "This is quite an honor. I'm surprised. It certainly challenges a teacher. I knew I had been nominated, that's all."

Nominations can be made by the general public. Freedoms Foundation aims to recognize properly the exceptional teacher who inspires young people to fuller recognition and appreciation of our Republic as a vital personal responsibility. President Dwight D. Eisenhower is honorary chairman of Freedoms Foundation, a non-profit, non-political, non-sectarian organization.

President of Freedoms Foundation, Dr. Kenneth D. Wells, described the medal as being in the shape of a Dogwood blossom, symbolic of the determined patriotism of the men of Valley Forge in 1777-78, suspended on a ribbon of our national colors.

In announcing the presentation of these medals to American teachers, Dr. Wells said, "The contest in the world today lies between the alert, aroused, determined American classroom teacher, and Communist Party directed, Pavlovian trained classroom instructors, all atheistic, whose zealous efforts are directed toward training a technically informed, dehumanized socialist youth seeking world conquest."

He further said, "Freedoms Foundation believes that informed American teachers will not be hoodwinked by the artful propaganda of foreign or domestic, subversive mind-changers. Freedoms Foundation believes in the American teacher's power of spirit, historic patriotism and professional skills. They know our nation is in peril.

"We are confident that they will give us a generation of individualistic, cooperative star pupils, patriotically trained and spiritually motivated to totally win out in the struggle with the Kremlin-directed classroom instructors of atheistic world socialism."

TEACHERS in 40 states and the District of Columbia are receiving this Valley Forge Classroom Teachers' Medal, in their home schools on Graduation Day. In 1960, the Foundation hopes to award one or more worthy recipients in every city, county, public and private school system in the nation.

Thug Deserts Dying Partner, Terrorizes St. Louis Family

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—A gunman deserted his dying holdup partner after a drug store gun battle with two detectives, then terrorized a family and a hostage Sunday before police flushed him from a dingy attic. He was still defiant but out of ammunition.

The desperado, 32-year-old Ivan L. Deckard of Heltonville, Ind., was bleeding from an arm wound. Two detectives also were wounded, neither seriously, in the gun fight in a neighborhood drug store at suburban University City.

Cornered two hours later and five miles from the holdup, Deckard said: "I only regret I didn't have more bullets. I'm not yellow, I just ran out of ammunition."

A short time earlier near his hiding place in North St. Louis, Deckard had released his hostage, 23-year-old Richard Wetzel of suburban Wellston. Wetzel was unharmed.

The 6-foot-3 Deckard had been sought since his escape from the federal building in downtown St. Louis April 13. He was being held for possessing a machine gun. His bandit partner, ex-convict Herbert J. Lorts, 34, was "hot in the heart." They took only $104 from the drug store, much of it in checks.

As the bandits barged into the store, they didn't know that a telephone conversation between a boy and his girl was about to stymie them.

Bruce Zuckerman, 27, son of drug store owner Irwin Zuckerman, was in a telephone booth chatting with his girl friend.

Tersely, he told her: "Call the police — I must hang up."

Minutes later, Detectives Raymond Bruno, 52, and Stanley Topper, 36, arrived — knowing only there were some kind of trouble.

They were greeted by bullets. But one of the wounded detectives shot Lorts. Deckard also took a bullet in a rapid exchange of shots.

Deckard ran, dumping a bag containing the loot in a vacant lot, before invading the two-family flat of Wetzel's fiancée, 18-year-old Janet Fischer.

Deckard herded her 20-year-old sister, Mrs. Lois Barth, and her mother, Mrs. Margaret Fischer, 35, into the kitchen.

Mrs. Barth said the bloody Deckard terrorized the women and her 6-year-old brother, Eddie. When Wetzel knocked on the door she said Deckard made them let him in, then said "all right, we're all gonna go for a ride."

Wetzel promised to drive him anywhere if he would leave the women behind. Deckard agreed. Police spotted Wetzel's car in North St. Louis and gave chase.

Deckard headed for the home of an off-arrested pal, Curtis Link. Chief of Detectives James Chapman and a police detail saw a taxi parked in front of Link's apartment. Three officers started up the attic stairs and Deckard shouted, "Don't shoot. I'm coming down."

Head-Tail Crash Comes at Peak Of Rush Hour

Passengers Thrown To Floor like Tenpins In Jammed Steel Cars

CHICAGO (AP)—At least 119 persons were injured, two seriously, today in a head-tail collision of two jammed rush hour elevated trains carrying riders to downtown Chicago.

The impact telescoped a four-foot section of the Logan Square trains and threw standing passengers to the floor like tenpins.

Scores were treated at the scene. Others were taken to hospitals for treatment or examination.

The collision of the two six-coach trains of all steel construction occurred when the first train stopped after leaving a station and was rammed by the second.

A passenger, Jerry Rous, was in the rear car of the train that was hit. He said he turned his head and saw the other train approaching.

"There was a big bang and sparks were flying," he said. "All the people started running for the front of the car."

"One girl who had been standing near me started screaming for her mother. 'God help me,' she cried. Her leg was cut off near the bottom. Then there was a Japanese man. His arm was cut and he was bleeding from the mouth."

Ronald Nowok, a passenger on the train that rammed the second said, "Everything went black" upon impact. He said a side door in his car flew open, a woman beside him fell backward and he hit his head on a seat.

Witnesses said passengers in the rear car of the standing train ran forward to the other cars while those in the front car of the rear train tried to crowd into the rear cars.

Passengers in elevated trains can step from car to car through front-rear exits.

The crash occurred at 1800 Milwaukee Ave., at the highest point of the northwest elevated route and between the Damen and Western avenue stations. The El structure there is as high as a three-story building.

The motorman of the rear train, Dominick Paris, was trapped in his cab for more than a half hour. He complained of a leg injury but was able to walk unaided.

Passengers said the rear train had just pulled away from the Western avenue station and was traveling slowly when the collision occurred. The first coach of the second train telescoped about four feet.

Frank Thielmann, second deputy fire marshal in charge of rescue operations, estimated a total of 800 passengers were on the two trains.

Paris, freed from his cab by firemen using portable electric saws, told police and newsmen he had pulled away from the station about 8:18 or 8:20 a. m. when "a train stalled in front of me and I came up behind it." He said he couldn't estimate his speed because the straight stretch of tracks at the scene had no signals.

There was no immediate explanation of why the first train stopped.

A spokesman at St. Elizabeth said the number of injured brought there was "at least 92 and probably more."

St. Mary of Nazareth Hospital said 27 injured were brought there but none was believed in serious condition.

There was no fire, but fire department equipment was rushed to the scene to remove the injured. Firemen used a car on a long movable beam that can be swung to varying heights. About five persons were brought down from the structure each trip.

Castro Orders Land Reforms

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro's cabinet Sunday enacted a much-trumpeted land reform law to curb the size of ranches and sugar plantations, many of them American owned, and distribute the balance of the holdings to landless peasants.

Initial reports reaching Havana said the new law restricts ranch holdings to 3,333 acres and sugar and other plantations to 1,000 acres.

Lands will be parceled out to landless peasants on the basis of 67 acres per family of five. Each family will have the opportunity to purchase an additional 10 acres.

West Seeks To Close Ranks At Big 4 Talks

ministers "expect to explore in greater detail the significance of the Western peace plan and to demonstrate to the Soviet government that the Western proposals have gone far toward meeting its views."

What the statement did not say was what the Western position will be when as expected—the Berlin proposal in the package plan is rejected by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

The problem will remain of what to do about Berlin to avoid a possible military showdown with Russia. Some stop-gap solution will have to be worked out, if possible.

West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano said on going into the session at Herter's office "the whole affair is nothing serious."

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd went into the U.S. headquarters direct from an hour long talk with Gromyko on the work of the conference this week. Gromyko sought the discussion with Lloyd but declined to disclose whether he had made some new proposal.

Other points of difference between French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville and the other Western ministers also are becoming apparent. French informants say their government is decidedly against holding a summit meeting in San Francisco because it should be in a neutral place like Geneva.

Lloyd has favored San Francisco possibly because he thinks this would appeal to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and make a summit conference more certain. The United States is willing to agree on San Francisco if the others insist.

The Western camp also is divided on secret diplomacy. Herter and Lloyd want to go into small private meetings soon.

British Foreign Secretary Couve de Murville thinks the West should wait for the Russians to take the initiative for secret talks.

Lloyd's meeting with Gromyko lasted almost an hour. Gromyko described it as informal and told newsmen: "Don't ask me to disclose secrets." Lloyd would say only that they discussed the work of the conference.

Pope Says China Situation Serious

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII told a vespers audience in St. Peter's Sunday night he feels "many bitter sorrows" over persecution of Roman Catholics in Asia and Hungary.

"We must report that the situation (in China) has now become even more serious," he said. "Pressures are being brought on the Catholics there to force them to give up their allegiance to the Pope and to our Church."

Pope John said "another deep grief" during his first seven months as head of the Roman Church was occasioned by the situation in Hungary, "where the government is making it ever more difficult for the bishops to carry out their duties."

House OK of Operating Bill To Enable Assembly To Quit

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—House passage of a $1,808,496,000 state operating bill will put the Legislature within shouting distance of final adjournment.

Controlling Democrats, returning for their 20th week of work today, predicted passage of the appropriation measure Tuesday. That set off talk of a June 20 adjournment but leaders termed the date uncertain.

They said a stack of proposals by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle might keep the 103rd General Assembly in session longer than usual. Action by the House on the big money bill usually signals the end of a session within a month or six weeks.

Last week's break in the long Senate jam of tax measures buoyed hopes for adjournment next month. Once the revenue measures clear the Senate, leaders say the House can be counted on for final approval where needed. They explained that the Democrat majority is stronger and under tighter control in the House than in the Senate.

The appropriation bill, telling how tax money shall be spent, stands $461,854 above the total sought by DiSalle in his program for expanding state services. The House Finance Committee included in the extra amount $120,000 to train retarded children and $80,000 for rehabilitation of the blind.

Republicans have objected to the "modified line item" form of the budget bill. They assert it should spell out spending items, line by line, like budgets of recent years. The present form is a compromise between DiSalle's "lump sum" proposals for departments and recent GOP budgets.

Minority spokesmen contend that DiSalle needs only about half of the 360 million dollars in new taxes requested to run the state adequately.

After Senate approval of a two-cent increase in gasoline taxes, Sen. C. Stanley Mechem (R—Athens) asserted the boost was unnecessary. It would produce 116 million dollars in two years for new highways.

Mechem, Senate minority leader, insisted the governor could finance his proposed 300 million dollar highway building program with available funds.

"At present rates of contract selling," Mechem said, "the (highway) department likely will have over 20 million dollars on hand on July 1. If 200 million dollars is available, then no tax increase whatever is needed for the proposed 300 million dollar a year program."

"The department's efforts to rationalize its demand for a tax increase has led to invention of additional needs. . . . A further inconsistency exists in department logic on highway financing."

On the one hand, they argue for pay as you go financing for construction contract funds. They cite the interest costs on bond issues averaging about 3 per cent as too costly.

"On the other hand, the department proposes to borrow retirement system funds for right of way purchases at an interest cost of at least 4 1/2 per cent."

"The Highway Department has yet to prove its case for increased motor fuel taxes."

Only a handful of bills are up for a vote in the Legislature today. They include a Senate proposal for registration of habitual sex offenders and a House-passed bill allowing metropolitan housing authorities to set aside units for aged residents.

Great Grandma Flies Fast Jet

GEORGE AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—A 71-year-old great grandmother who is afraid to drive a car has broken the sound barrier—twice.

Mrs. Zaddie Bunker climbed out of an F100F Super Sabre Jet Saturday and announced "it was the greatest ride I ever had in my life."

The plane, named "Zaddie's Rockin' Chair," had just flown nearly 800 miles an hour in level flight at 36,000 feet. Then in a dive from 40,000 to 15,000 feet, it exceeded the speed of sound again.

"I didn't even realize it," said Mrs. Bunker, of Palm Springs, Calif. "I'm ready to go again right now."

$5-$10 Bill Is Stolen

CLEVELAND (AP)—A freak $5 bill was reported stolen from his hotel room here Sunday by Walter Breen, a New York coin collector.

Or was it a $10 bill? You could call it either, Breen told police. The rare note has $5 printed on one side and $10 on the other.

Breen, who was attending the Pennsylvania-Ohio Coin Clubs convention, said the unusual engraving mistake made his two-faced note a $600 rarity.

Ike Tells Air Cadets: Go To Bed with Smile

WASHINGTON (AP)—"Make sure your face doesn't grow longer every day," an honorary, fellow graduate, President Eisenhower, told the first senior class of the Air Force Academy.

"Go to bed with a smile," he continued, "and you'll find a long, happy fruitful life—fruitful to your country and to humanity."

Europe Mart Watched by U.S. Industry

Fast Growth Worries Americans Who Seek To Boost Exports

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — American firms seeing some of their export markets dwindle while industrial imports into the United States rise are watching one business trend in the European Common Market with apprehension.

The speed with which businessmen in the six nations are making mutual manufacturing and sales pacts to dominate the European market and perhaps swell their share of overseas trade. The trend is spreading beyond industry to banks and stock exchanges.

The British and the Swiss are just as watchful as Americans. The ugly word cartel is never used, nor the word trusts — business pacts long unpopular and even illegal in the United States.

Officials of the European Economic Community (common market) in Brussels say they are watching lest cartels or trusts develop.

But agreements among companies and even whole industries are multiplying in the six nations — France, West Germany, Italy, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg.

Businessmen have made much more speed working toward unity than have the politicians working at the tariff, quota and currency level.

Organizations of businessmen are federating, too. Associations in the six nations which are like the National Assn. of Manufacturers in the United States have formed an over-all federation — UNICE (Union des Industries de la Communauté Européenne).

Federations of individual industries are now legion. The national industry groups that have formed six-nation federations include:

Steel, coal, nonferrous metals, metalworking, chemicals, rubber, paper, construction, household heating and appliances, clothing, shoes, woodworking, electrical equipment, auto makers, canners, packers, brewers.

Individual banks in all of the nations, except Luxembourg, have set up a joint credit pool.

Officials of stock exchanges in 11 cities will meet next month in Paris to discuss cooperation measures which might some day lead to an unified operation — roughly comparable to the setup in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

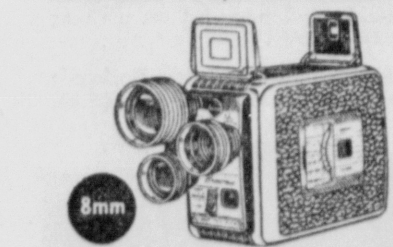

The individual exchanges are in Rome, Milan, Zurich, Berlin, Düsseldorf, Frankfurt, Paris, Lyons, Luxembourg, Brussels and Amsterdam.

The London Stock Exchange is sending an observer. England now holds it in position to play a leading part in unification of European capital markets.

Protection for Older Ohio Workers Sought by Solon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—"Too old to work, but too young to retire."

That's what they say about Ohioans over 40 and Sen. Arthur Blake (D - Belmont) wants something done about it.

He is pushing for enactment of legislation to prohibit discrimination in employment because of age.

Blake says it is increasingly difficult for the unemployed over 40 to find jobs. About half of the jobless who received state unemployment benefits last year were over 40. And about 60 per cent of Ohio's large industrial firms refuse to hire workers past 40.

With the legislative session about two-thirds over, Blake wants action on a bill to require the hiring of qualified men over 40 and women over 35 who apply for job openings.

A second hearing on the measure is scheduled next Tuesday in the Senate State Government Committee. Blake introduced the proposal as Senate Bill No. 2 on Jan. 13, right behind a bill to ban discrimination in employment because of race, religion or national origin.

A measure creating an Ohio Civil Rights Commission to enforce such a ban already has been enacted into law, effective July 29.

An attempt to amend that proposal, to include age in the ban against racial and other job discriminations, failed.

A few days ago, the committee recommended approval of a Senate-House resolution calling for a study of the "jobs after 40" problem.

Action on the resolution followed Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's assertion that more information is needed before enactment of an age-discrimination law.

But the grey-haired Blake, in his sixth Senate term, wants help now for the growing corps of those passing 40. He insists that the brakes come off his long-stalled bill so it can overtake the study proposal.

Blake has strong backing for his bill from the Fraternal Order of Eagles (F.O.E.) Robert H. Maxson of Akron, Ohio Eagles secretary, says the F.O.E. has petitions bearing nearly one million signa-

Marines Due To Land On Cleveland Beach

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Marines will be landing, literally, at Cleveland in a July 18 exercise connected with this city's St. Lawrence Seaway celebration.

Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze gave approval Friday to a mock invasion at Edgewater Beach by 1,500 men of the Second Battalion, Sixth Marine Regiment. The unit will accompany a 28-ship Navy task force on a seaway cruise.

School Safety Plans Studied

Elimination of Fire Hazards Is Urged

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
"Fire doesn't wait. It will continue to strike as swiftly, devastatingly and unexpectedly as ever."

Connecticut's state fire marshal, Carroll Shaw, sounded that warning.

He spoke out against any delays in eliminating fire perils in schools now because the old buildings will be replaced by fireproof structures in the future.

Capt. Shaw reported progress is being made in his state. He suggested that the summer vacation will be a good time to bring schools up to safety standards.

He was one of the officials consulted in an Associated Press survey of state and city action in the wake of Chicago's disastrous Dec. 1 school fire.

That tragedy cost the lives to three nuns and 91 pupils in Our Lady of the Angels school.

But it also gave a hot spur to officials in other parts of the country.

The first and most far-reaching reaction was a flurry of school inspections. At least 50 schools closed.

Repairs and improvements have been ordered in hundreds of schools. The costs will run into millions.

Many states and cities are considering — and some have approved — various safeguards. Among them are fire drills twice a month, new alarm and sprinkler systems, fire resistant building materials, enclosed stairwells, added fire escapes and new electric wiring.

Further, the New York churchman says, all nations of world will ask him to be their "king" by 1966.

Canadian Hunters Seeking Bear Skins

TIMMINS, Ont. (AP) — Forty hunters plunged into the north Ontario bush today looking for bears with which to rehat the guard at Buckingham Palace.

The hunters, led by Mayor Leo Del Villano, carried weapons that included old army rifles and German 8-mm. specimens.

It was Del Villano who organized the hunt, after reading that the bearskin shakos worn by the guards at Buckingham Palace looked ragged and moth-eaten, not at all imperial. The War Office in London accepted the mayor's offer and said it would take as many bearskins as he could supply.

Million Still Unemployable

The "hard core" of U. S. unemployment contains some 777,000 workers. This three-quarters of a million figure used by Fortune magazine includes all who have held no job since last summer.

Fortune predicts that this jobless group is unlikely to shrink much in the near future. The hard core represents approximately 18 per cent of all the unemployed.

Thus there is little hope that much can be done for one out of every five unemployed persons in the country under present conditions. Federal aid programs, including unemployment compensation hardly touch these at all. It is unlikely that such programs as retaining for new jobs would cut significantly into this particular total.

Even in a country where full employment is an avowed government goal, the hard fact remains that almost a million citizens have no talents to offer on the job market of interest to potential employers. They constitute a "hard core" no one has been able to crack.

Lakes Challenge Seamen

Among the men who sail ships the skill of the Great Lakes sailor is legendary. His is not an almost limitless expanse of water in which to maneuver the clumsy work-horses of commerce, but a route of narrow, exacting channels treacherously studied with granite reefs left behind by the glaciers.

Now, with the St. Lawrence Seaway open, the salt-water sailors are learning first hand the difference between lake navigation and ocean navigation. In the clear depths of the lakes can be seen the outlines of ships that failed that lesson.

The first American ship through the seaway demonstrated the problems that face the salty mariners when they set their courses inland. It collided with the shore. Yet to come are the violent storms that churn the lakes into a fury.

Wives To Be Widows 10 Years

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The average U.S. wife today can look forward to being a widow for 10 years. Her actual life span is only six to seven years longer than that of her husband, but she usually marries a man three years older than herself.

James Hoban, the man who designed the White House, was paid only $500 for the job—one of the best government investments in history.

Wisdom in capsule: "Recessions begin and end in the minds of men."—Charles G. Mortimer, president of General Foods.

Do you have trouble sticking to a diet? Some snakes can live from one to two years without food. They absorb the fat from their own bodies.

The price of cartoon comedy zoomed. Thirty years ago Walt Disney could produce a Mickey Mouse one-reeler for $7,000. Now an animated one reel film costs $60,000 or more.

How vital is blood to you? It amounts only to about one sixteenth to one twentieth of your body weight. But ordinarily the loss of one third of your blood, unless replaced, will cause death.

The odds against lightning striking your television antenna during a thunderstorm range from 10 million to 1 to 220 million to 1, depending on how many sets there are in your community. So quit worrying!

Remember the famous poem about the purple cow? It ended, "I'd rather see than be one." Actually, the only animal purple in color is the blesbok, a small South African antelope.

A good wife and a happy home life are a man's best forms of mental health insurance. Nearly 90 per cent of the men admitted to mental hospitals are unmarried.

Our quotable notables: "The woman's work that's never done," says Dorothy Shay, "is most likely the work she asked her husband to do."

America's sweet tooth seems to be getting sweeter. More than 2,000 types of candy are turned out yearly in this country. It's a billion dollar business. Candy made of honey, spices, and chopped nuts and fruits was sold in Egypt as early as 150 B.C. Women now outnumber men in the United States at the rate of 100 to 98.4. But they can still out-talk them two to one!

Can you name the largest organ of the human body? It's the skin. And, except for the brain, it is perhaps the most complicated.

Consoling fact: despite high prices, the average American can buy nearly three times as much food for an hour's pay as his grandfather could back in 1916.

Infant mortality is still a big problem down on the farm. Twenty-three per cent of all pigs die before they are weaned.

Marital bargain: The owner of the famed Meramec Caverns at Stanton, Mo., is offering free underground weddings during June. But what couple wants to start with a marriage on the rocks?

No matter how bad the weather is where you live, the man in the moon has it worse. Lunar temperatures vary from 215 degrees above zero in the sunlight down to 240 degrees below zero in the dark.

By George Sokolsky

The Protestants have got themselves into a row over China. A resolution was adopted by a World Order Study Conference, sponsored by the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., which proposed recognition of Red China by the United States and that Red China should be recognized by the United Nations.

This resolution is reported to have been written by Dr. Ernest Gross who used to be in the State Department in the good, old days when Dean Archison was Secretary of State.

So, Rep. Walter H. Judd, who used to be a missionary in China, and Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, the Rev. Daniel Poling, Bishop Herbert Welch and over 7,000 Protestant clergymen denounced the Gross Resolution. In fact, Dan Poling, who edits the "Christian Herald," and who is a great preacher and writer, led in the protest against the Gross Resolution. Dr. B. A. Garside wrote an article for the "National Review," setting forth why Christian clergy should oppose the recognition of Red China. Among other things, he said:

"The Communist regime is inherently atheistic, and the enemy of every form of religion. It has compiled a massive record of imprisonment, torture, and sadism in its persecution of the adherents of every faith—Christianity, Buddhism, Mohammedanism. Authentic records of the suffering and martyrdom of many thousands of missionaries and Chinese Christians comprise a chapter of both tragedy and heroism rarely equalled in history—and that chapter is still being extended."

The Rev. Irving E. Howard in "Christian Economics" said: "Reacting quickly to the unfavorable opinion, the National Council of Churches prodded Dr. Ernest Gross, chairman of the Department of International Affairs, to make a public statement to the effect that what had occurred at the Cleveland Meeting was the action of the World Order Study Conference and not of the National Council of Churches." While this may be technically true, the meeting at Cleveland was called by the president of the National Council of Churches and was authorized by the General Board of the National Council of Churches in May, 1957. Furthermore, the same names appeared at Cleveland which appear at every National Council meeting.

"Dr. Herbert S. Mekeel, president of the National Association of Evangelicals, has denounced the immorality of such recognition. 'Red China's leaders have scorned every known moral principle in the treatment of her own people and of other nations.' Dr. Mekeel continued: 'Chinese Reds have out-distanced their Russian masters... nothing has been too base, vile, or cruel if it gains their ends.'"

A statement issued by the Clergymen's Committee, organized to protest the Gross Resolution, said:

"We firmly believe that the action taken in Cleveland does not represent the thinking of the overwhelming majority of American Protestants, clergy and lay. We believe that it must be taken as merely the point of view of those delegates who voted for it. Further, we believe that this action is inconsistent not only with the standards of the United Nations but also with the clear principles of morality and Christian faith."

Enough for quotations! What is shown here is that those who drafted and arranged for the passage of this resolution did not count on the emotional response in this country to the attempt to influence public opinion favorably to Red China. Gross did not realize that to many Protestants as to men and women of other faiths, Red China is more hated than Soviet Russia, for Red China intervened in the Korean War, killed and brainwashed American troops and attempted to shoot its way into the United Nations.

Did Ernest Gross believe that Dan Poling whose son went down in one of the most dramatic events in naval history, when four chaplains of various faiths linked their arms and accepted death to save lives—will such a man forget the barbarity of the Chinese murders of Americans in Korea?

It is too hard to forget and forgive such barbarism. It will take the Chinese Reds a long time to win the respect not only of Westerners who do not understand their inhumanity but of the peoples of Southeast Asia who are ashamed of them.

What Ernest Gross, who had been in the State Department, believed he would accomplish by a captive resolution, is difficult to grasp. But nothing would please the Chinese Reds more than American recognition and they undoubtedly bring pressure to bear.

"Couldn't you look just a little less natural, dear?"

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

THE 1912 BULL MOOSE convention's official program featured photographs of Teddy Roosevelt and his running mate, Gov. Hiram Johnson, on the front cover. A couple of million programs had come off the presses when the publisher suddenly discovered he had not secured permission from the copyright owner to use the photos in question. Faced with the possibility of a costly damage suit, he grimly wired the owner: "Considering use of your photographs on covers of three million convention programs. Publicity break of a lifetime! What will you pay for this?"

The owner of the pictures wired back: "Will pay five hundred dollars and not a cent more." The relieved publisher answered, "Your offer ridiculously low, but being pressed for time, we accept."

One thing of which you may be sure: he who laughs last doesn't work for the fellow who told the story!

Cope with Cockroaches

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

As warmer weather approaches, each of you homemakers had better strengthen your defenses against cockroaches.

Now I realize that none of you would like to find one of these little creatures in your kitchen or pantry. You would be embarrassed to think that it could happen in your home.

Well, it can happen, and very easily, too. Moreover, cockroaches can be more than embarrassing; they can be sickening.

In the first report of its kind I have ever seen on the subject, the Smithsonian Institution issued a warning a while back on the potential dangers of these pests.

A study by two doctors showed that cockroaches may well spread disease organisms to humans and domestic animals by crawling over food and plates.

But these doctors, sticklers for facts, point out that natural transmission "has not been incontrovertibly proved."

Well, if they think it is even possible, that's enough for me — and you.

So let's map our battle strategy. Best way of protecting your food and family from these pests is not to let cockroaches get into your home.

Shop only in roach-free stores. While you can't always tell, of course, you can readily spot a store which isn't kept as tidy and clean as it should be.

As an added precaution, check all incoming soda and other cartons carefully. Inspect any wooden cases or cardboard containers that are brought into your home.

Clean up immediately after you have finished eating. Don't leave any crumbs on the floor or table. Be sure to remove any food scraps from the drains, too.

Keep garbage in a covered container. Remove all garbage from your home at least once a day. The best idea is not to leave anything in the household garbage can overnight.

Once roaches do get into your home, you are going to have trouble getting them out, but these tips may help:

Spray all exposed areas and potential breeding grounds with a good non-toxic bug repellent.

Use plaster or plastic putty to fill all cracks behind baseboards and door frames.

Question and Answer
Mrs. E. C. Laxatives have become a habit with me and I would like to know if there is a diet that would help correct constipation?

Answer: A diet containing roughage, such as raw fruits and vegetables, bran and prune juice might also be helpful.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has never been so much on his own in the presidency as he is now, on problems at home and abroad.

With the departure of the two men upon whom he relied most completely—Sherman Adams and John Foster Dulles—he has had to depend more on himself.

The result has been more vigor and aggressiveness in dealing with domestic issues and foreign affairs.

Adams, who quit under unhappy circumstances last September, was more than just Eisenhower's top White House aide.

He was a combination buffer, filter, work-mover and very tough chief of staff.

No President ever relied more absolutely on his secretary of state than Eisenhower did on Dulles until cancer forced Dulles' resignation last month.

Although the President is the one ultimately responsible for American foreign policy, there was not much doubt it was Dulles who made the policy.

With the exception of the former secretary of the treasury, George Humphrey, no other man was ever credited with as much influence on Eisenhower as Adams and Dulles.

Humphrey, who quit in mid-1957, reportedly still has Eisenhower's very attentive ear on matters economic, financial and budgetary. But he is no longer a day-to-day adviser.

Eisenhower's increased aggressiveness shows clearly in his relationship with Congress.

For most of his White House years — except around election time — Eisenhower leaned over backward to avoid conflict with Congress.

One of the outstanding examples was in 1957.

That year he, Humphrey, and the budget director had worked months on the national budget, supposedly to keep expected expenses to the lowest possible figure.

Eisenhower even said his budget was as tight as he could make it. But Humphrey startled the country by saying it could be cut. In no time at all Eisenhower was urging Congress to cut it any place it could find a soft spot.

This year it's different. Eisenhower has fought Congress, and fought it hard, in a completely opposite direction.

Anxious now that the budget be balanced — that is, that spending doesn't exceed income — he has repeatedly slugged the Democratic-run Congress for any suggestion he has asked too little and that spending be boosted.

This by itself illustrates an odd spectacle.

Any President who is not going to run again supposedly loses influence during his last White House years not only in Congress but in his party generally. And, because of the constitutional two-term limit, Eisenhower can't run again.

But his influence with his own Republican Party has not noticeably diminished at all. Perhaps this is one of the reasons:

Eisenhower, in two presidential elections, has shown himself so infinitely better liked than his party, which has lost Congress three times in a row, that the Republicans there don't dare cross or forsake him.

Actually, the party has no leadership but Eisenhower's anyway. So it's no surprise they trail along with him. If there is any surprise, it's in the way the Democrats have acted.

They were extremely careful not to rough him up—and by so doing antagonize the voters—in his first term. They were just as careful in his next two years. But then came the 1958 congressional elections.

The Democrats won so overwhelmingly they seemed in good position—particularly because of the supposedly waning influence of a last-term President—to do as they please and ride over him rough-shod.

They made sounds of doing that with his budget this year until he fought back. Now they're playing cautious, especially since he has the power to veto them, and may be make it stick, any time they cross him.

The result has been a very conservative performance in Congress, which is the way Eisenhower wants it.

Van Wert Car Is Used by Montana Thug

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Sheriff's officers today returned from South Dakota a young Montana man wanted for questioning in the robbery and attempted rape of a Minneapolis woman. No charges have been filed.

The youth, Thomas Hamilton, 18, Whitefish, Mont., was arrested Friday in Aberdeen, S.D., after his nervousness and fancy car aroused the suspicions of a service station attendant.

Sheriff's detectives here said they want to question Hamilton about the robbery Friday of a suburban Wayzata, Minn., woman. Three dollars were taken from Mrs. Jean Robinson and the robber tied her with neckties.

Authorities said Hamilton carried a billfold owned by Mrs. Robinson. Hamilton said he found the wallet on a Minneapolis street.

Mrs. Robinson told authorities a young man invaded her home Friday. When he demanded money, she gave him one dollar from a purse. He bound her with some of her husband's ties and then took two dollars from a child's bank.

Detective Lt. Stan Hurley of the Hennepin County (Minneapolis) sheriff's office said the robber attempted to rape the holdup victim.

Hamilton was driving a pink and gold automobile, a Lincoln, when he stopped for gas at Groton, S.D., 18 miles east of Aberdeen, about 8 p.m. Friday. The station attendant, David Doeringfeld, notified authorities that the youth appeared nervous and in a hurry. Hamilton was arrested as he drove into Aberdeen. Kopecky said the car driven by the man had been stolen at Van Wert, Ohio last Wednesday.

Boy Admits His Car Is Pedestrian Killer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Detectives say a 16-year-old Cleveland youth admitted the car he had just bought Saturday was the vehicle that killed John Kenik, 56, here Saturday night. Police said he falsified his age in buying the car, then used his father's license plates. A couple in another car saw the accident and secured the license number. The boy is held in Cleveland Detention Home.

4 Crosby Brothers Form Own Quartet, Book Debut

Editor's Note — The four sons of Bing and Dixie Lee Crosby have been famous since the days they were born. Sheltered in their youth and recipients of bad publicity as adults, their real identities have been clouded. What are they like? How do they feel about their father, their mother? Why do they sometimes get in trouble? What pressures do they face as bearers of a famous name? Associated Press columnist Bob Thomas answers these and other questions in a four-part series starting today, drawing from closeup views of the quartet.

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Phillip Crosby was the first to arrive at his brother Gary's house, high above the Sunset Strip.

A husky athlete with a stubble of white hair, he had just come from visiting his wife and their new-born daughter, first after a long line of Crosby males. Phillip reported a wire from father Bing, expecting his sixth child: "Congratulations. Hope it's a trend. Love, dad."

Dennis came in next. Balding, pale and soft-spoken, he chided his twin for naming the new-born Dixie Lee; Dennis had also hoped to name a future daughter after his mother.

Next, the master of the house stormed in. Chunky in a one-piece zipper suit, Gary had just finished a day's work at 20th Century-Fox. The big living room started ringing with his jokes and caustic comments.

Cancer is the leading cause of death among American women aged 30 to 54. More lives could be saved if every woman had a complete physical checkup at least once a year. Support the American Cancer Society's 1959 Crusade.

Lindsay, the youngest, strolled in almost unnoticed. A tanned, handsome lad, he listened to the banter of his brothers.

They gathered around a piano with vocal coach Bill Thompson and started singing "Blues in the Night," a number for the brother act with which they plan to tour the country. It was an intricate arrangement that required many rehearsals. Finally, they mastered it.

These sessions have been going on almost nightly for weeks and will continue until the June 15 debut at Hesperia, Calif. The boys are pouring $35,000 into the act. The reason for their effort and expense is simple: they know they are on a spot. Being Bing's boys, they must produce—or else.

The public scrutiny has played a large part in shaping their lives. They are bewildered and sometimes embittered by the kind of publicity they get.

Gary, the sharpest-tongued of the four, declared: "There will always be the blood-suckers who can only write about the drunk driving arrests, the fights and the other things that make the headlines. I don't think we drink any more or get in any more trouble than anyone else our age." (Gary is 25, the twins 24, Lindsay 21).

Because of their famous father and publicity that has pictured them as trouble-makers, the Crosby brothers have failed to register in the public mind as individuals. Yet they are interesting personalities in their own right.

In some ways they are similar. They all have the same breathless delivery of buoyant humor that reminds you immediately of their dad. They share a deep reverence for their mother, who died of cancer in 1952.

Their regard for Bing is by no means as unanimous. In this and many other ways, the brothers differ. Succeeding articles will consider these differences and how the four shape up as individuals. Tuesday we'll discuss Gary, leader of the Crosby boys.

TRAFFIC 'MENACE' — Calvin Kline, 31, wears a smile and wheels his bicycle by hand in Cleveland after getting a jolt in court—a $25 fine, five-day jail sentence suspended, and a no-pleasure-riding-for-30-days edict. All this results from "reckless" wrong-way traveling and red light crashing.

TV Ads Failing To Make Sales

Expert Says Public Disregards Messages

NEW YORK (AP)—If you're worried about the effect of television's hard sell on the tender public mind, you may be fretting unnecessarily. Perhaps you should center your concern on the people who produce the hammer-type commercials.

At least, that's the most recent flash from members of the American Psychiatric Assn. which at its recent meeting held a special round-table on mass communication and mass motivation—meaning mostly TV.

Dr. Jurgen Ruesch of the University of California, for instance, came right out and said what a lot of people have sensed: that the "bombardment of advertising" does not necessarily lead to increasing sales but creates instead "inattentive people who will disregard most messages that tend to distort reality."

"The public," supplemented New York psychiatrist Dr. Bernard L. Pacella, "is perpetually vaccinated so that it does have some immunity from advertising messages. I think that the public has become accustomed to a continuous barrage of slogans and messages, and over a period of time has become sophisticated about advertising claims. This produces a defensive reaction—an automatic reduction of attention to the television message so that sometimes it is skipped entirely. Sometimes the very contrast between high grade entertainment and the commercial will put this automatic turn-off into operation."

Parents Burn Boy's Hands For Stealing

NEW YORK (AP)—Two boys, aged 4 and 5, their hands swathed in bandages, embraced their father outside the Queens Felony Court here. They hugged and kissed him repeatedly.

Then they went inside and told how he had held their hands over a gas jet on the kitchen stove to punish them for stealing.

The two boys had stolen bubble gum and candy while on a shopping trip with their mother, who made them give the things back. Later she told the father.

The older boy, his feet dangling far off the floor as he sat in the witness chair, said, "He held my hand over the stove, first one, then the other. Then he did the same to Donald. Mommy put bandages on us, but she told Daddy to put my hands on the stove."

The boy, Arthur Murray Jr., said his 23-year-old mother, Arlene, stood right there while the punishment was carried out.

The 27-year-old father, an $85-a-week plumber's helper, was released on $50 bond on an assault charge. There are two other sons in the family.

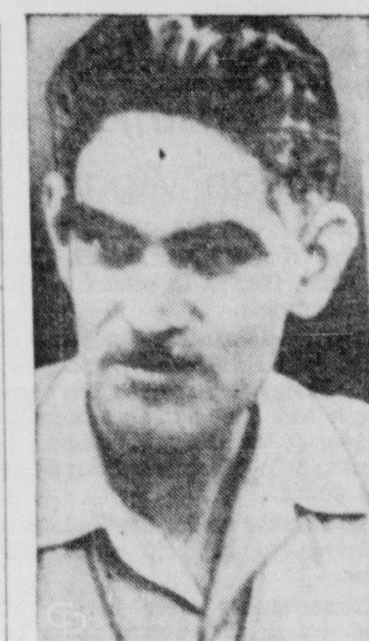

The judge denied a defense request to put the mother on the stand. He said: "These are the acts of persons who are not all there, but the father is responsible. I don't care what the reasons were."

Outside the court afterward Mrs. Murray told reporters, "We did what we thought was right to discipline the boys."

Auto Expert Names Son 'Jaguar Ferrari'

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Mrs. Donald Tonninger of Lincoln agreed to let her husband select the name for their infant son, born Friday.

Tonninger, who builds racing car engines and operates a car remodeling shop picked the name: "Jaguar Ferrari."

GIVES UP DOCTRINE — In a speech broadcast by Baghdad Radio, Premier Karim Kassem of Iraq said his nation is giving up the "Eisenhower Doctrine," which provides for United States aid to any Middle Eastern country requesting it to fight Communism. Kassem said Iraq would remain neutral between East and West.

Maybe Porpoises Smarter than Man

MONTREAL (AP) — Are porpoises smarter than people? Could be, says Dr. D. O. Hebb of McGill University, president-elect of the American Psychological Assn. He told an interviewer the playful sea mammals have a larger brain and more cortex than man, but more study is needed to learn if their brain size gives them more brain power than humans.

Plastic Foam Mattress Provided for Cows

LONDON (AP)—Cows on Anthony Bramley's farm in Oxfordshire sleep on plastic foam mattresses instead of expensive, scratchy straw. He says his herd of 56 Friesians sleeps more comfortably on plastic beds, specially designed at 30 by 18 feet to hold several cows. The cows yield 165 gallons of milk a day, triple the national average for farms of his size.

AGREED—Senators Hubert H. Humphrey (D), Minn., and George D. Alken (R), Vermont, have agreed that C. Douglas Dillon's nomination as under-secretary of State should be considered apart from the foreign aid issue. Both said aid policy critics should aim their fire at the program itself, not Dillon. Both took the position, however, that Senator Russell B. New Crisis Is Feared Off Formosa

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) —Red China turned its guns on little Matsu Island for the first time in two years Sunday, heightening Nationalist fears the Communists may be preparing a new crisis in the Formosa Strait.

A Nationalist officer and two soldiers were reported killed as the Reds lobbed over 444 shells at the offshore island group at the northern end of the Formosa Strait.

The barrage reportedly destroyed six civilian homes on the two islands.

The nationalist Defense Ministry said the Red mainland batteries were silenced after 90 minutes by effective counter-fire.

An hour before the Red guns opened up on Matsu, 10 Communist ships fired on Nationalist warships which sight them west of the little island. The Defense Ministry said the Nationalists ships returned the fire and the Red craft fled.

A few hours before the Reds had hurled 84 shells at their usual target — the Quemoy Islands — 150 miles south of Matsu.

It was the first time the Reds had shelled Matsu since April 28, 1957.

Nationalist circles have been predicting for several weeks that the Reds might try to stage a new crisis in the Formosa Strait to warn the West there could be trouble in this area unless concessions are made to the Soviets on Berlin and Germany.

Foreign observers are inclined to make light of such fears.

Hank Aaron Points To Batting Mark In .400 Bracket

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Henry Aaron, who may become a batting champion in 1959, must feel like a guy swimming against the tide.

The Milwaukee mauler rapped a home run and single in the Braves' 8-3 victory over Los Angeles Sunday. That gave him a spectacular run of eight consecutive games in which he's made two or more hits. Yet, during that time he's tacked on only one percentage point to an average that now stands at .484.

That's not all. The slugging outfielder has hit safely in each of his last 21 games. Yet, during those three weeks, he's actually lost 16 points. He was batting an even .500 when he started the streak. Hammerin' Hank is in a spot now where his average drops if he collects two hits in five times at bat.

Aaron's homer No. 11 came in the fifth inning, broke a 2-2 tie, and set the stage for the Dodgers' fourth straight defeat. The victory enabled the Braves to retain their 2½ game margin over the runner-up San Francisco Giants, who defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 9-1.

Chicago's Cubs crept to within two percentage points of the fourth place Reds, pulling out a split in their doubleheader with Pittsburgh. Ernie Banks' ninth home run provided them with a 7-6 triumph after Pittsburgh had won the opener 5-4. Rain forced the postponement of the scheduled doubleheader between the Philadelphia Phils and Cardinals in St. Louis.

Lew Burdette made only 84 pitches in subduing the Dodgers for a 6-2 record. The Milwaukee right-hander permitted eight hits, including home runs by Don DeClerck and Charlie Neal. Del Crandall had four hits, including a homer.

Shortstop Andre Rodgers supported Stu Miller's five-hit pitching with a pair of home runs and a single as the Giants won the rubber of their three-game set with Cincinnati. Willie Mays, continuing his hitting spree, slammed a homer and double. The defeat was charged to Bob Purkey, who defeated the Giants four times in five decisions last year.

Ashville 6th In District Track Meet

Ashville came in sixth and Salt Creek, ninth, in the central Ohio District Class A Track Meet Saturday at Ohio Wesleyan, Delaware.

Bobby Hoover was a one-man Bronco side show as he racked up Ashville's 15 points with two firsts and a third. The all-round athlete won the high jump and 180-yard low hurdles with a third in the 120-yard high hurdles.

Salt Creek's Gary Valentine took second in the pole vault and teammate Jack Fout ran third in the 200-yard dash and fourth in the 100-yard dash.

Williamsport's Bobby Reeser placed second in the mile. Hoover jumped 5' 10¼" in the high jump, which is not his best effort. He tied for first in the county meet at 5' 5".

THE ALL-COUNTY basketball player won the low hurdles in :21.1 after winning this event in the County Track Meet in :22.7.

The slender All-Darby Valley football star got off-side in the high hurdles and had to settle for a third. Valentine vaulted 10' 9" for a second in the pole vault. The winner went 11'.

Valentine has been plagued by injuries the past two weeks and was unable to enter the mile. Williamsport's Reeser was second in 4:47.

The winning time was 4:42. Valentine bested Reeser in the All-County meet with a 4:54 time. Fout met his match at the District after winning both the 100 and 22-yard dashes at the County meet.

Fout ran the 220 in :23.1 for a hird. The winning time was :22.2. Fout won the County 220 in :24. In the District's 100, Fout ran fourth in :10.5, while the winner was clocked in :10.2.

All District finalists will compete in the State Track Meet to be held Friday and Saturday at Ohio State University.

Tigers Split Doubleheader With Logan

Circleville's baseball Tigers split a doubleheader with visiting Logan Saturday, taking the first test, 6-1, and dropping the second, 6-0.

Bob Caudill, allowing only three hits, picked up the win. Duane Dean and Caudill worked the second game, with Dean taking the loss. Myers of Logan held the Tigers hitless in the second test which went only five innings.

Circleville's lineup in the second test was composed mostly of second-stringers who gained some valuable game experience.

Caudill fanned three and walked five in his winning effort. His mates backed him up with six hits, including a double each by Jake Bailey and Rich Greenlee. Stewart suffered the loss for Logan.

FOUR errors and seven walks, along with Myers hitless pitching, spelled the downfall for the locals in the second match.

In the first game, Circleville picked up one run in the opening frame, three in the third and two in the sixth. Logan's single marker came in the fifth.

The visitors started fast in the finale of the twinned, posting two runs in the first, one in the third and three in the fourth.

Coach Dick Fisher's charges travel to Greenfield today for one of two remaining league games. Tuesday they go to Franklin Heights to end the season.

Stonerock Softballers Get Double Win in EOFL Tests

Stonerock's TV earned a twin win over Don's Lumber of Zanesville in Eastern Ohio Fastball League competition Saturday night. The locals took the first test, 7-0, and the second, 6-1.

Kenny Reid, hurling hitless ball, grabbed the first win. He was backed up by 10 hits, including his own triple. The fastballer fanned nine and walked two. Thompson hurled for the visitors.

Butch Manion and Carl Gulick each poked two doubles in the first test. Bob Glick, Speeder Davis and Harold Gulick also had a two-bagger each.

The locals, undefeated in EOFL play, scored three times in the first frame, once in the fourth, twice in the fifth and once in the sixth.

MANION got the win in the second tilt as he held Don's to three hits. He whiffed 10 and walked three. The loss was charged to Hammels who gave up nine batters.

Jets in Split With Havana

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bill Short was just another name on the Richmond Vees pitching roster when the 1959 International League season began. Things are a bit different today.

The 5-9 lefty is the showcase of the Vees staff after his four hit, 1-0 shutout over the Miami Marlins in the second game of a doubleheader Sunday. Miami won the opener 3-1.

Short, who hails from Kingston, N.Y., shows a miserly 0.30 earned run average for his five games to date. He has started four and completed three, and has a 3-1 record. His only loss was by an unearned tally, 1-0 to Columbus May 10.

Havana and Columbus also swapped 1-0 victories Sunday. Havana won the first game and Joe Gibson outpitched Vince Amor in the nightcap for Columbus.

In other IL action, Rochester swept a pair from the Toronto Maple Leafs, 8-1 in the opener and 6-2 in the nightcap. Montreal edged Buffalo 7-6 in the first game and the Bisons turned around to take the nightcap 6-3.

Bill Shorman of the Boston Celtics is one of the best foul shooters in the history of the National Basketball Assn. He has won the foul shooting honors in six of the last seven years.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Come In Out of the Rain, Kid

DEAR ABBY: My name is Ruth and I have a girlfriend named Madeline who works where I work. We are both 28 and go around a lot together. This Madeline has a gift of gab I wish I had. She can get away with doing things I never could do. For instance, she can go up to a man she has never seen before and say to him, "You think it's going to rain?" And before you know it he has moved his beer to our table and she's made a friend. She doesn't pick up men in a cheap way, Abby. She's just friendly. She loves everybody. I have tried to do this, but I felt cheap. Is meeting men this way all right or isn't it?

RUTH

DEAR RUTH: Rain or no rain, this "friendly" method of meeting men (unless he is a weather forecaster) is all wet.

DEAR ABBY: Tell that stupid stepmother that she shouldn't be so worried about what her stepson calls her. If I had a 14-year-old boy around I wouldn't care what he called me. If she doesn't want him, she can send him to me and he can call me anything his heart desires. I lost my only child nine years ago and if he had lived, he would be fourteen years old tomorrow. Sincerely,

MRS. D. K.

DEAR ABBY: Our son was in the Service and like many other boys he met a girl, was married and brought home a wife. My husband and I welcomed her although we were disappointed because they were so young and our son couldn't complete his education. They have made no effort to look for a place of their own. My daughter-in-law has taken over the house (but not the work) and now they have one child and another on the way. What is wrong with our young people, Abby? We don't want to be harsh but wouldn't you think they would have more ambition?

DISAPPOINTED

DEAR DISAPPOINTED: Our young people (some of them) have never learned to shoulder responsibility because they have never had to. Take away the crutches and they will walk.

DEAR ABBY: What would you say if I told you it took my wife five hours to dress to go to town? She gets up at 4:30 in the morning if she has to be somewhere at 9:30. There are no children to worry about. It takes her two hours alone to bathe and another three to get dressed, put her make-up on and fix her hair. We have been late to so many parties that they have stopped inviting us. We went someplace once and when we got there most of the people had left for home. Have you any suggestions?

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: If your wife is not ready to go when you are—go without her. She is selfish to deprive you of a social life, and you are foolish to let her.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Tribe Splits Doubleheader With Orioles

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Cleveland Indians split a doubleheader with the Baltimore Orioles Sunday to cling to their half-game lead over the second-place Chicago White Sox in the American League race. The Sox split in two games at Washington.

The Indians blew their chance to gain on the White Sox by losing the opener, 8-7, in 11 innings after holding a three-run lead with two men out in the last of the ninth. They won the nightcap, 8-3.

Cal McLish was only one out away from his sixth straight win in the first game when Bob Boyd singled. Bob Nieman grounded to shortstop George Strickland, who bobbled the ball and then threw wild to first base for a second error. Gus Triandos followed with his eighth home run of the season to send the game into extra innings.

Rookie Jim Perry relieved McLish in the 11th and forced in the winning run by walking Billy Klaus with the bases loaded. Relief pitcher Jerry Walker gained credit for the victory to make his record 3-0. The loss was the first decision for Perry.

Gary Bell, 22-year-old Cleveland righthander, made his first start since May 6 in the night cap and went all the way to pick up his third victory against two defeats. The loser was 20-year-old Mill Pappas, who lost his first game in five decisions.

The Tribe wrapped up the nightcap with four runs in the seventh inning, aided by a Baltimore error that made two of the runs unearned. The big blow of the rally was a two-run triple by Vic Power.

County's Tax Duplicate Is $111,260,631

The tax duplicate for Pickaway County is $111,260,631, of which $27,920,324 is inside municipalities. The total appraised valuation for the previous year was $109,846,891.

With every county but one showing an increase last year, the total valuation for tax purposes of all real estate, public utilities and tangible personal property in Ohio is almost 26 billion dollars, State Auditor James A. Rhodes reports. Only county to show a decrease is Paulding.

Valuations for 1958 as reported to Rhodes office by county auditors total $25,931,032,793. This is the appraised value on which taxes are being collected this year. It is an increase of $1.3 billion over the previous year's grand duplicate and almost double the appraised valuation 10 years ago of $13 billion.

Approximately 71 per cent of this valuation is located in Ohio's cities and incorporated villages; 29 per cent in the rural areas and small unincorporated hamlets outside municipalities.

CUYAHOGA COUNTY, with a valuation of almost $5 1/2 billion has approximately one-fifth of the total tax duplicate in the state. Vinton county has the smallest valuation. Six counties have tax duplicates in excess of one billion dollars. They are: Cuyahoga, $5,223,240,771; Hamilton, $2,689,668,160; Franklin, $1,624,383,167; Lucas, $1,306,990,936;

Summit, $1,306,990,936; Montgomery, $1,297,653,536. These six big counties account for nearly 52 per cent of the valuation on real estate, public utilities and tangible personal property.
